Peter Bunce is a Certified Public Accountant who specializes in complex tax and accounting issues for small businesses and individuals. Peter's wide variety of industry experience includes manufacturing, construction, healthcare, and agri-business, among others. He has over 15 years of experience preparing and reviewing small-business and individual tax returns, as well as representing clients in front of the IRS and state revenue agents.

Peter graduated from Oregon State University in 2003 with degrees in Accounting and Finance, and a minor in Forest Products. He began his career in 2003 with a multi-office public accounting firm based in Portland, Oregon and was promoted to Principal after being with the firm for only six years. In mid-2015, he started his own firm located in Bend with a goal of continuing to provide excellent service for his existing clients while building his practice.

In addition to working in the office, Peter hones his technical skills by teaching at continuing education seminars for the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA). He has presented to thousands of tax professionals throughout the United States and has received the Outstanding Discussion Leader award four times (2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016) which is given annually by the AICPA to the top 20 instructors in the country.

He is also the author of the AICPA's class titled Cancellation of Debt for Individuals and Businesses. Peter is an active member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Oregon Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Peter lives in Bend, Oregon with his wife and two children. They can often be found hiking, camping, and fishing at their favorite places around the Northwest.
